General

The race is organized according to rules published by Styrkeprøven AS. Participants are required to comply with the organizer's instructions and rules

Binding registration

Registration is binding. No refund is provided for sickness, injury i.e. unless the specific cancellation insurance policy is purchased. This as per clause 7.

Cancellation

In the event of cancellation of any of our events prior to the day of the race the Organizers can keep 50 % of the admission fee to cover running costs. If the event is moved to another venue at the same date, or cancelled and restarted at a later date or being moved to a new venue on another date, those admitted at the original date and not starting at the alternative date and or venue will not be eligible for any refund. If the race is cancelled at the date of the race, for reasons of climate and or weather and or force majeure, no refund will be made available.

Participation in another person's name

It is strictly forbidden to compete under any other name than your own. It is furthermore not allowed to give your start number to any one else. Breach of this specific rule can ban you from Styrkeprøven for a period of up to five years.

Transport Costs, Hotel Accommodations Cost etc

Transport, accommodation costs and the like will not be refunded in case of illness, injury or cancellation of the event, except for those who have signed cancellation insurance, have a valid medical certificate and promote their claim in a timely manner.

Insurance / License

It is the responsibility of the person (guardian) to have a license. All participants in our event must be able to settle single-time insurance / insurance if they do not have full-year license through NCF. The one-off license applies to everyone from the age of 13 through 79 years. The license will not be refunded in case of illness or cancellation of the event.

If you are the holder of a National Race License from another country, you may use this. If you choose to use a National License from another country than Norway, you are without exceptions solely responsible for your own insurance.

Cancellation insurance

At the same time as you sign up for the race, you can sign cancellation insurance. Cancellation insurance covers cancellation due to acute illness and illness in the immediate family. Valid certificate from a physician must be added to the claim for reimbursement.

Cancellation insurance costs NOK 300, –.

NB! Without cancellation insurance, no part of the registration fee will be refunded

NB! Requests for reimbursement under cancellation insurance must be submitted in writing before April 26th, 2019, at 12:00

We pay particular attention to the following:

a. Refund request must contain a certificate from a doctor. Without a medical certificate, no refund will be processed.

b. Requirement for reimbursement of hotel and transport orders is only possible until 12:00 April 1th. After this date, no transport and / or hotel bookings will be refunded. This resulted from our obligations to third party suppliers.
